of the faculty by the Management.

Assistant Professor to Senior Assistant Professor

- Movement from Assistant to Senior Assistant Professor was considered a "promotion". However, this policy views movement to Senior Assistant Professor as an "early recognition system" of a promising Assistant Professor. Those making it to Senior Assistant Professors are more likely to make it to Associate Professor in the minimum prescribed time, if their performance remains at a sustained high level.
- The eligibility conditions for moving from Assistant Professor to Senior Assistant Professor shall be as follows:
- Ph.D.: Significant progress (completion of pre-Ph.D. course work, and literature survey) Three years as Assistant Professor.
- Prescribed research output (At least two published papers in peer reviewed and respected journals (with not more than two co-authors); 2 conference/seminar papers in reputed conferences/seminars).
- Teaching feedback above 3.0 on a 5-point scale.
- Demonstrated initiatives in institutional affairs.
- The Senior Assistant Professor shall be eligible for two monetary additional increment benefits.
- Additional increments will be applicable if the faculty remains in the Senior Assistant Professor and will not be carried forward to the next grade.
